Annual Report

Annual Meeting Sets Forth Plan to Seize the Future

The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce celebrated its 98th Annual Meeting last month, setting forth a path to “Seize the Future!” by unveiling a three-year strategic plan and naming new directors.

Strategic planner Chuck Ewart, of the The Ewart Group, outlined a direction for the chamber that works by:

- Focusing on our members, the lifeblood of the chamber. The chamber continually explores and provides value-added benefits to enhance economic prosperity;
- Being the voice of business to ensure our members have every opportunity for success and profitability, and are able to compete on a level playing field;
- Telling your story to showcase Adams County’s diverse business community. This includes providing timely information that can help our members more efficiently and profitably run their business;
- Business and entrepreneur development to ensure our smaller businesses have every opportunity for growth and success; and
- Developing the workforce and leadership for the future to ensure our businesses continue to prosper.

Joining the board in January to help put the plan into action are: Lisa Duffy, Hanover Hospital; Melissa Ferguson, Holiday Inn Express & Suites Gettysburg; and Stacey Green, Biggerstaff’s Catering. Incumbants re-elected to an additional term are Henry Grossman, TREYSTA technology management; Bryan Johnson, Brown’s Ranch; and Duane Kanagy, Adams Electric Cooperative Inc. Retiring board members are Norris Flowers, Destination Gettysburg, and Amanda Hollabaugh, Hollabaugh Bros. Inc.

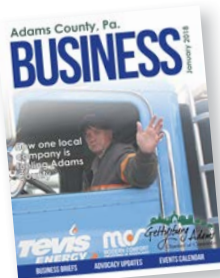

The enthusiastic board leads the chamber in serving the local business community. Last year, the chamber was directly responsible for more than 5.8 million member referrals, held 30+ networking events and welcomed 14 new businesses with ribbon cuttings. We also distributed 10,000 copies of “Adams County Living” business directory magazine directly into the hands of potential customers.

More exciting projects are in the works for 2018, so stay tuned for ways you can be part of our work to make Adams County a better place to do business.

Your chamber facilitates international trade:

As a Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce member, you can obtain free Certificates of Origin from the chamber office to facilitate international trade. These important international trade documents certify that goods in a particular export shipment are wholly obtained, produced, manufactured or processed in a particular country. They also serve as a declaration by the exporter. Virtually every country in the world considers the origin of imported goods when determining the duty that will be applied or, in some cases, whether the goods may be legally imported at all. The chamber is the key agent of delivery of these international trade documents.

Business News

The bolded businesses in Business News are Chamber members. Submit news (between 50-75 words) to news@gettysburg-chamber.org by the second Tuesday of each month for inclusion in the following month's publication.

ACNB Bank recently reported its third quarter earnings at $1.91 million. The figure represents a 30 percent drop from the previous year because of acquisition expenses for New Windsor State Bank. Without the acquisition expenses, the bank would have brought in $4.65 million, a 68 percent increase over last year. Other earnings include $1.2 billion in loans, a 42 percent increase; $1.3 billion in deposits, a 36 percent increase; and $1.6 billion in assets.

Belco Community Credit Union Senior Vice President and Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Capital Region Board Chairman Paul Perini III rappelled from Market Street Plaza in Harrisburg to raise $1,750 in donations for the Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Capital Region Over the Edge fundraiser. Rapellers were encouraged to raise $1,000 using an online fundraising platform, and, in turn, were able to rappel 18 floors, or 220 feet, from the roof of the building. More than 60 individuals participated and raised greater than $82,000.

Katherine Rivera has joined Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Homesale Realty as a REALTOR® and member of the Julianne Lesniak Team. Her team members consist of Julianne Lesniak, Stan Lesniak, and Allyson Smith. Rivera will specialize in residential sales throughout Adams and York counties. Berkshire Hathaway Homesale Realty has 27 offices serving Pennsylvania and Maryland, including an office in Gettysburg at 1270 Fairfield Road.

C.S. Davidson Inc., an employee-owned consulting engineering firm with offices in Central Pennsylvania, is pleased to welcome Jason C. Wolfe RLA as a project manager in the Civil Engineering division. He is responsible for the design of land development plans for various project types. His duties include development of project schedules, scheduling resources, land development design, grading, the design of stormwater management facilities, the design of erosion and sedimentation control facilities, landscape design, streetscape design, rendering of plans, 3D modeling, the design and preparation of highway occupancy permits, cost estimates, client coordination, public municipal meetings and construction field observation and inspection.

C.S. Davidson Inc. recently hired Jacob A. Eshelman as its newest testing technician. He will perform in-situ concrete and soil testing and is responsible for air-entrainment, slump and temperature testing of concrete, along with obtaining samples for laboratory testing. He will also perform nuclear testing and soil bearing testing of in-situ soils. C.S. Davidson Inc. is a leading engineering firm with offices in York, Lancaster and Gettysburg.

Destination Gettysburg welcomes Katie Thomas as a sales assistant. In her new role, she will work with the sales department to help bring meetings and group tours to Gettysburg. Having received her bachelor's degree in Communications from Spring Arbor University in Michigan, Thomas brings with her six years of administrative experience in various settings, most recently at the University of Chicago Laboratory School.

Doceo Office Solutions has hired William (Bill) Baldauf as executive vice president of service. He heads the entire service department that makes up more than half of the Doceo team. He is responsible for all aspects of field service, customer service, dispatching, warehousing, logistics, equipment set up and inventory management. Baldauf brings more than 30 years of services and technical experience to DOCEO. He was as service technician for over 15 years and most recently, he was a service manager for a dealership in Maryland.

Doceo Office Solutions has promoted Seth Lewis to technology consultant, adding to the company's rapidly growing sales team. He will educate and provide office solutions to customers in the Maryland market that include multifunction printers, desktop printers, wide-format systems, hardware/scanning systems and document management software. Lewis joined the team in 2014, and assisted with warehousing and distribution operations, and has a degree in finance.

Tim Dolen has just started a six-month assignment as Veteran Outreach Coordinator at Gettysburg National Military Park and Eisenhower National Historic Site.

Dolen's new position is a fellowship sponsored by "The Mission Continues," a nonprofit that empowers post-9/11 veterans, Guardsmen and Reservists to deploy on new missions in their communities. During his fellowship, Dolen plans to work with existing organizations that help veterans currently doing retreats, excursions or day trips for veterans, either in the area or nationally.

The stone barn at the McPherson Farm on the Gettysburg National Military Park and the Historic Round Barn and Farm Market are among the structures featured in a new documentary, "Barns of the Susquehanna Valley." Created by Jonathan Slade, chair of the Department of Communications and Cinema at McDaniel College in Westminster, the documentary premiered last month on Maryland Public Television. The program explores the pivotal role the barns played on the American landscape and explores how barn owners are adapting their historic barns for the 21st century.

Students at HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College, can now transfer more easily to Elizabethtown College and take up to two courses at Elizabethtown at no cost while still enrolled at HACC. Colleagues from both schools met at HACC's Harrisburg Campus on Oct. 17 to sign a dual admission agreement. HACC dual-admission students receive benefits including early transfer planning, scholarship opportunities, access to libraries and other facilities on the campuses of four-year institutions and waived application fees.

Lark welcomes Roxanne Carter, older sister of owner Timbrel Wallace, as a regular team member. Carter has been a utility player at Lark for some time, filling in at the store whenever needed. She has a degree in history and worked in banking for 27 years, most recently as a mortgage closer.

Rebecca Becker is the new Director of Music at the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church. A Hanover resident with a rich music background, including experience in directing church choirs, Becker will add to the tradition of music excellence at the church. She will direct both the Chancel Choir and a smaller group, the Glory Singers.

Manufacturers' Association

members recently participated in an invitation-only visit from Vice President Mike Pence, which included a roundtable discussion regarding the tax reform package now in Congress. The visit highlights the importance of southcentral Pennsylvania's manufacturing base to the national economy. Manufacturers were able to address the issues they face each day working in the highly-competitive marketplace. The event was attended by about 100 guests, many from local manufacturers and businesses, and also included several members of the Pennsylvania Congressional Delegation and Secretary of Labor Alexander Acosta.

Mister Ed's Elephant Museum & Candy Emporium raised $512.09 for the Adams County SPCA during a recent free event at the Orrtanna store. Funds were raised during the Great Pumpkin Party, where nearly 400 children came to paint pumpkins free-of-charge. Proceeds from the sale of refreshments and chances to win giant carved pumpkins will go to support shelter operations. The shelter receives less than one percent of its operating budget from tax dollars and depends on donations from individuals and businesses.

The Optimist Club of Gettysburg has installed new officers for 2017-18. New officers are Dan Mattern, president; Brian Skidmore, vice president; Daryl Aurand, secretary; Tom Barako, treasurer; Doug Miller, board member; Mindy Accardi, board member; and Bill Pyron, board member. The club was chartered in 1958 as an affiliate of Optimist International and has been in continuous service to the Gettysburg community and its youth.

ways the state can better support workers in their efforts to secure and keep family sustaining jobs, as well as ways to invest in the education and training that will make businesses in Pennsylvania more competitive. Following the conclusion of the regional meetings, the task force will present recommendations to the governor.

Central Pennsylvania regional public-transportation provider rabbittransit has created a new nonprofit that aims to boost transportation choices for seniors, people with disabilities and others. The nonprofit is called 3P Ride Inc. 3P Ride will work primarily to identify resources for projects and initiatives that are not typically funded by traditional transportation dollars and increase transportation options for veterans and vulnerable families and the infrastructure supporting them.

Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce board chair Darlene Brown serves as the 3P Ride board's vice chair, while Family First Health's Shane Moore is also a board member.

The members of Smith Elliott Kearns & Company LLC congratulate David L. Maaskant CPA on his successful completion of the certification process with the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts to earn the Certified Valuation Analyst credential. The CVA credential is granted only to qualified individuals with considerable professional experience in the field of business valuation after completing an intensive training and testing process. David is a Tax Manager in the Carlisle office and specializes in working with small businesses.

Under The Horizon has hired a local fiber artist with expertise in knitting, needle felting, embroidery and sewing. Mary Love began teaching fabric arts classes in November. Mary has a heart for teaching new and advanced students of all ages as a way of opening up imagination and inspiring others to capture the loveliness around them. She believes that one of the most powerful aspects of handiwork is its transformative power, saying that as we slow down and look closely at the things in our world, as we converse with and inquire of those around us, as we sit back and appreciate what we have wrought, we are transformed.

WellSpan Health is taking the next step in an ongoing care transformation initiative for patients across the regional health system. A new electronic health record system -- a product of Epic, a leading national health care software firm -- will allow patients to more easily connect with their care team, and will allow better coordination of care across WellSpan's many locations throughout the region. Once completed, the initiative will allow the health system to maintain all clinical data and patient information on one platform, providing one patient record no matter where they receive care in the system. WellSpan is also rolling out an enhanced version of its MyWellSpan online patient portal. The new site will include improved online appointment scheduling functionality, enhanced bill payment options, an expanded electronic check-in process for pre-registration of appointments, and the option to receive text message alerts for portal notifications.

The chamber recently cut the ribbon on the new location of V & F Multiservice at 3195B Biglerville Road, Biglerville. The bi-lingual team offers the following services: notary public, income tax preparation, document translation, PA license registrations, title transfers, immigration and US Citizen applications and much more.

The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce's Golf Outing raised $750 for the John R. White Memorial Fund, which benefits local causes through the Adams County Community Foundation. Pictured are Ralph Serpe, Adams County Community Foundation; Tonya White; Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce President Carrie Stuart; and Eric Gladhill, tournament committee member.

Last month business leaders gathered to share ideas as part of a Manufacturing Panel Discussion, the second in a series of sessions to gauge the opportunities, challenges and needs of Adams County's top industries. The discussion was part of a larger effort by the Advantage Adams team -- Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce, Adams Economic Alliance, HACC-Gettysburg Campus, Destination Gettysburg and the County of Adams -- to help businesses grow and plant seeds for new businesses to be established in the county. Dates and locations for two more panel discussions on agriculture and healthcare will be announced soon.

New Oxford's fun kitchen and home store, the Redbud House, has expanded to a new location in downtown Gettysburg at the Village Vendors, 19 Baltimore Street. Owners Rose and John Lansing offer beautiful and useful serving pieces, table linens, kitchen gadgets, as well as fun gifts for your home.

Chamber President Carrie Stuart participated in a leadership panel discussion during the Pennsylvania Association of Chamber Professionals in Clarion in October.

Freedom Transit Update

Effective Sunday, Dec. 3, through May 5, 2018, Freedom Transit will operate on the Winter/Spring Schedule & Route Map. The Blue Line will continue extending service to the Adams County Human Services building located at 525 Boyds School Road and Misty Ridge Terrace, an affordable housing community in Gettysburg. The Gray Line will continue to operate its same schedule ending service at 8 p.m. daily and the Lincoln (Red) Line will end service at 6 p.m. You can view our Winter/Spring Schedule & Route Map online at www.ridetherolley.com.

Remember, we go in snow. Our 15N rabbitEXPRESS service from Gettysburg to Harrisburg will continue to operate on its normal schedule. Consider commuter bus service rather than driving in icy conditions this winter. Visit www.rabbittransit.org/express for schedules.

This time of the year is also great to consider purchasing bus passes as stocking stuffers or gifts for a friend, parent, neighbor or someone else in the community. For details, call 800.632.9063 or email info@rabbittransit.org. Happy Holidays!
