The 2012 Gettysburg Wine & Music Festival was "Bursting" with Fun!

It seems as though the October newsletter always has two things in common, the Gettysburg Wine & Music Festival and the mention of rain! This year a micro-burst (a first experience for many) tore through the grounds on Saturday and wreaked havoc on many of the tents, the fencing and the sound system. The unprecedented storm emergency caused the festival to close early in order to assure the safety of vendors, volunteers and attendees. Fortunately we were able to clean up the storm aftermath and re-open on Sunday.

Members of the Gettysburg High School Battlefield FFA, were a huge help as they cleaned up the Festival grounds.

One thing is certain, year after year, the success of this event is not possible without the efforts of so many individuals and businesses. Special thanks to the following that offered their time, talents and/or products to the 2012 Gettysburg Wine & Music Festival:
