

News Release

---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Feb. 11, 2016

Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce to Host State Legislative Luncheon March 11

Gettysburg, Pa. – The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce, Adams County’s largest and oldest business organization, invites the local business community to its annual Legislative Luncheon Friday, March 11, in the Robert C. Hoffman Community Room of HACC – Gettysburg Campus. Registration and buffet lunch begins at 11:30 a.m., with the program at noon.

The event features a panel discussion and Q&A with state legislators Senator Rich Alloway and Representatives Dan Moul and Will Tallman, moderated by Gettysburg Times columnist Fred Snyder.

“The chamber is pleased to once again offer this forum to the local business community,” said Carrie Stuart, chamber president. “With so much happening on the state level, we’re looking forward to a great dialogue on concerns important to each of us, such as the budget, pension reform and liquor privatization.”

Each legislator will provide a brief update on his activities, then the floor will be opened to questions for a full hour. Attendees are encouraged to come prepared with topics and questions for discussion to ensure an informative and engaging program.

The program is $22 for chamber members and $27 for non-members and includes a lunch catered by the South Central Community Action Programs Food Development Program. To register, call 717-334-8151 or email info@gettysburg-chamber.org.

The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce supports the local business community by promoting diverse economic opportunities through advocacy, networking and information. Nearly 540 local businesses and organizations are members. For more information or to join the chamber, visit www.gettysburg-chamber.org.

Media Contact: Nicole L. C. Bucher, 717-334-8151

# #