Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce Offers Program on Immigrants and Your Business

Gettysburg, Pa. – The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce, Adams County's oldest and largest business organization, will help business owners and human resources professionals better understand immigration law issues during a seminar, "Immigrants and Your Business," on Thursday, March 1.

The program, which includes breakfast, is from 8-10 a.m. at the Adams County Agriculture and Natural Resources Center, 670 Old Harrisburg Road, Gettysburg. Cost is $15 for chamber members and $25 for future members. To register, call 717-334-8151 or email info@gettysburg-chamber.org.

The seminar is presented by experienced labor and employment litigator David Freedman, partner at Barley Snyder Attorneys at Law.

"Keeping up with regulations can be tough, especially when you're a small business owner who wears many hats," said Carrie Stuart, chamber president. "This program will help employers remain compliant with immigration laws and hear how their responsibilities are changing."

Topics of the program include:

- What immigration law issues do human resource professionals face every day?
- What should employers do now to ensure compliance with immigration rules?
- How are employers' immigration law responsibilities changing?
