Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce to Host State Legislative Luncheon March 23

Gettysburg, Pa. – The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce, Adams County's oldest and largest business organization, invites the local business community to its annual Legislative Luncheon on Friday, March 23, at the Gettysburg Hotel. Registration and buffet lunch begins at 11:30 a.m., with the program from noon-1:30 p.m.

The event features a panel discussion and Q&A with state Representatives Dan Moul and Will Tallman and Chad Reichard, legislative director of Senator Rich Alloway. The program is moderated by Pennsylvania Chamber of Business & Industry President and CEO Gene Barr.

"As Adams County's voice of business, the chamber is pleased to once again offer this forum to the local business community," said Carrie Stuart, chamber president. "With so much happening on both the state and federal levels, and ongoing budget discussions, it's important that businesses and organizations discuss their concerns with our elected officials. Likewise, it's good to hear our legislators' priorities, as well as challenges and opportunities they may face."

Each legislator will provide a brief update on his activities, then the floor will be opened to questions for a full hour. Attendees are encouraged to come prepared with topics and questions for discussion to ensure an informative and engaging program.

Cost is $25 for chamber members and $40 for future members. To register, call 717-334-8151 or email info@gettysburg-chamber.org.
