Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce Seeking Business Award Nominations

Gettysburg, Pa. – Nominate an outstanding Adams County small business owner or business for the Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce Business Awards. Nominations are due April 29.

The awards recognize the contributions of small business owners in the categories of Young Business Leader, Minority Business, Family Owned Business and Best Small Place to Work in Adams County. Winners are honored during the chamber’s Business Development Week Breakfast at 8 a.m. on Friday, May 8, at Comfort Suites, 945 Baltimore Pike, Gettysburg.

For a nomination form, visit www.gettysburg-chamber.org and click on “News & Programs” then “Nomination Forms” and “Business Awards.”

“Adams County is home to exceptional small businesses that create jobs, contribute to the local economy and serve the community,” said Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce President Carrie Stuart. “These awards shine a spotlight on their many contributions that keep Adams County strong, viable and growing.”

Successful candidates are members of the chamber, located in Adams County, in operation at least three years, contribute to the community and demonstrate innovation.

The chamber’s Awards Team will review and evaluate all nominations based on the award criteria, written narrative and supporting evidence. All nominations will be treated as confidential.

The chamber supports the Adams County business community by promoting diverse economic opportunities through advocacy, networking and information. More than 530 local businesses and organizations are members. For more information, visit www.gettysburg-chamber.org.
