Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce to Host Economic Breakfast April 7

Gettysburg, Pa. – The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce hosts its annual Economic Breakfast at 8 a.m. on Tuesday, April 7, in the Refectory of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, 148 Seminary Ridge, Gettysburg.

David W. Patti is the keynote speaker. He brings 30 years of government, political and public affairs experience to the Pennsylvania Business Council, where he works on behalf of the state's businesses to effect change that supports business growth and opportunity. Patti will provide updates on the issues facing Pennsylvania businesses and tell how Wolf Administration policies will shape the state's business climate.

Additionally, the chamber will honor Wilbur Slothour, owner of Land and Sea Services LLC, with the 2015 Small Business Person Award. The award honors business leaders who represent the principles of the chamber in business success, personal achievement and community service

The cost is $15 per person for chamber members and $20 for non-members and includes a breakfast buffet and program. Register before March 31 to 717-334-8151 or info@gettysburg-chamber.org.

The chamber supports the Adams County business community by promoting diverse economic opportunities through advocacy, networking and information. More than 530 local businesses and organizations are members. For more information, visit www.gettysburg-chamber.org.
