Socially Responsible Investing Topic of Gettysburg Adams Chamber's Earth Day Lunch & Learn

Gettysburg, Pa. – The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce, Adams County's largest and oldest business organization, invites the local community to its next Lunch and Learn program, "Earth Day Investing: Socially Responsible and Ethical Investing," presented Friday, April 22.

Ryan Fox, Huston-Fox Financial Advisory Services investment advisor, will discuss how your personal values can be designed into your overall investment strategy. Fox will provide research driven analysis matched with concrete ideas for your personal ideals.

"Over the past three decades, socially responsible investing has moved from the background to the forefront for many investors," said Fox. "From gender equality, to green initiatives, to weeding out undesirable preferences, socially responsible investing has blossomed into a growing, sustainable strategy."

The program runs from 12:15-1 p.m. at the chamber office, 1382 Biglerville Road, Gettysburg. Attendees are encouraged to bring their lunch.

Registration is free to chamber members and $10 for non-members. To register, visit Eventbrite.com and search for "Lunch and Learn Earth Day" in Gettysburg.

The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce supports the local business community by promoting diverse economic opportunities through advocacy, networking and information. Nearly 540 local businesses and organizations are members. For more information or to join the chamber, visit www.gettysburg-chamber.org.
