Cybercrime Topic of Gettysburg Adams Chamber's June 28 Lunch & Learn

Gettysburg, Pa. – The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce, Adams County's largest and oldest business organization, invites the local community to its next Lunch and Learn program, "Cybercrime: In the Crosshairs," Tuesday, June 28, presented by Penn National Insurance. Lunch is provided by Hockley & O'Donnell Insurance Agency.

"All businesses are in the crosshairs of cyber thieves, and small businesses are the most vulnerable," said Carrie Stuart, chamber president. "It's not a matter of if, but when. Be prepared by learning how to keep your business safe from a data breach."

The speaker is Tom Miele, manager of information security and compliance at Penn National Insurance, who has more than 30 years of experience in the information technology and security field. Miele's experience includes working with corporate internal audit, legal and compliance for state and federal laws, along with fraud, ID theft, privacy legislation and IT risk management/quality assurance. He is certified as an Information Systems Security Professional, Information Systems Security Management Professional and Homeland Security Level III.

The program runs from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. in the Robert C. Hoffman Community Room at HACC-Gettysburg Campus, 730 Old Harrisburg Road, Gettysburg.

Registration is free to chamber members and $10 for non-members and includes lunch. To register, visit Eventbrite.com and search "Lunch and Learn Cybercrime Crosshairs" in Gettysburg.

The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce supports the local business community by promoting diverse economic opportunities through advocacy, networking and information. Nearly 540 local businesses and organizations are members. For more information or to join the chamber, visit www.gettysburg-chamber.org.
