Gettysburg Wine & Music Festival Seeks Volunteers for Sept. 9-10 Event

Gettysburg, Pa. – Volunteers are needed for the 13th Annual Gettysburg Wine & Music Festival, central Pennsylvania’s premier wine event, held Sept. 9-10 from noon to 6 p.m. at the Gateway Gettysburg Complex in Gettysburg.

Each volunteer who works a three-hour shift will receive one free general admission ticket, including a souvenir wine glass, unlimited samples, access to live performances and a free t-shirt.

“This event is a success because of the many volunteers who support it and ensure every visitor has a great experience,” said Jennifer McCleaf, event director. “Gather your friends and volunteer for three hours then enjoy the festival for free.”

The event annually draws more than 7,000 visitors who sample and purchase wine from 27 Pennsylvania wineries, enjoy offerings from more than 50 food and craft vendors and dance to the region’s best live music.

Hosted by the Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce and supported by area businesses and hundreds of volunteers, the festival promotes Pennsylvania wine, boosts the area economy and strengthens the local quality of life. In addition to supporting programs of the Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce, the festival benefits school groups and community organizations.
