Gettysburg, Pa. – The 10th Annual Gettysburg Wine & Music Festival, central Pennsylvania’s premier wine event, comes to the Gateway Gettysburg Complex Sept. 6-7 from noon to 6 p.m.

Attendees can sample and purchase wine from 25 Pennsylvania wineries, enjoy offerings from more than 50 food and craft vendors and dance to the region’s best live music.

“We invite you to celebrate the grape harvest and enjoy a fall weekend in historic Gettysburg while you savor the flavors of hundreds of Pennsylvania wines and enjoy live music,” said Jennifer McCleaf, event director. “The 10th anniversary event promises to be the best yet, with more wineries than ever and special events planned to mark the milestone.”

A new fast-paced Celebrity Grape Stomp at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 7, will see local celebrities go toe-to-toe in a battle of the juice. Additionally, attendees can purchase limited edition 10th anniversary merchandise featuring the winning design from the popular festival T-shirt design contest.

Hosted by the Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce and supported by area businesses and hundreds of volunteers, the festival promotes Pennsylvania wine, boosts the area economy and strengthens the local quality of life. The event annually draws nearly 7,000 attendees.
