Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce Recognizes Members, Supports Community at Recent Breakfast

Gettysburg, Pa. – The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce, Adams County’s oldest and largest business organization, recently recognized area businesses celebrating milestone membership anniversaries during a County Connections breakfast at Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church in Gettysburg.

Businesses recognized for length of membership in the chamber are:

- Brown’s Ranch, Gettysburg, 15 years
- SpiriTrust Lutheran Home Care & Hospice Inc., Gettysburg, 10 years
- Littlestown YMCA, Littlestown, five years
- Farnsworth House Inn, Gettysburg, one year
- Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church, one year
- Terri L. Matlock, Associate Broker at Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Realty, one year

Attendees also donated school supplies for the South Central Community Action Programs’ Back to School Project. Supplies and monetary donations were close to $500.

The unique County Connections breakfasts, held quarterly throughout Adams County, are about building connections with fellow business leaders. Attendees network over breakfast then take the stage as all members have the chance to speak for one minute about their business or organization to the entire group.

The next County Connections breakfast is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 17, at 8 a.m. at the Adams County Library in Gettysburg, sponsored by C.S. Davidson. The program is $15 for members and $25 for future members and includes a hot breakfast by Ragged Edge Catering. Register online at gettysburg-chamber.org, call 717-334-8151 or email info@gettysburg-chamber.org.

The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce supports the local business community by promoting diverse economic opportunities through advocacy, networking and information. Approximately 530 local businesses and organizations are members. For more information or to join the chamber, visit www.gettysburg-chamber.org.
