

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Oct. 21, 2014

Hatfield Meats Chairman to Keynote 14th Adams County Community Prayer Breakfast Nov. 12

Gettysburg, Pa. – Clemens Family Corporation CEO and Hatfield Quality Meats Chairman Philip Clemens will speak during the 14th annual Adams County Community Prayer Breakfast at 7 a.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 12, at the Wyndham Gettysburg.

“We’re honored to host Phil Clemens as keynote speaker of this special breakfast,” said Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce President Carrie Stuart. “As the CEO of a large family owned business, he’s made many difficult decisions that affected both the business and his family. His story of family, faith, community and business will inspire as you make your own similar tough choices each day.”

Originally founded in 1895 by John C. Clemens, The Clemens Family Corporation is deeply rooted in core values: ethics, integrity and stewardship. Clemens Family Corporation owns Hatfield Quality Meats, among other businesses, and is one of the nation’s oldest family-owned marketers of value-added pork products.

The breakfast is hosted by the Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce and the Christian Business Men’s Connection and sponsored by Hanover Toyota.

The cost is $15 per person and includes a breakfast buffet and program. Tables of 10 are available. Register before Nov. 5 to 717-334-8151.

The chamber supports the Adams County business community by promoting diverse economic opportunities through advocacy, networking and information. More than 500 local businesses and organizations are members. For more information, visit www.gettysburg-chamber.org.

Media Contact: Nicole L. C. Bucher, 717-334-8151

#