Six Join Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors Adams County Housing Authority's Darlene A. Brown Named Board Chair

Gettysburg, Pa. – The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce, Adams County's oldest and largest business organization, elected six members to its board of directors during its annual meeting on Nov. 3 at the Gettysburg Hotel in Gettysburg.

Elected by chamber membership to serve three-year terms on the board starting Jan. 1, new board members include Chad-Alan Carr, founding executive/artistic director of Gettysburg Community Theatre, Gettysburg; Peter Doggett, area general manager of the Gettysburg Wyndham and Courtyard Marriott, Gettysburg; Sharon Kebil-Whisler, vice president and business banker at M&T Bank, Hanover; David Lamberson, CEO/president of Gettysburg Construction Co., Gettysburg; and Adam Zei, attorney with Campbell & White, Gettysburg.

“We are pleased to welcome these business and community leaders to the board to help establish the direction of the chamber and support the local business community,” said Carrie Stuart, chamber president. “With their time, talents and expertise, we’ll continue to create an environment where Adams County businesses prosper and communities thrive.”

Incumbent Peter Martin, owner and operator of PJ Martin Engineering, Gettysburg, was re-elected to serve a three year term.

Outgoing board members were recognized for their service, including Past Chair Stacey Green of Biggerstaff's Catering, who served four terms, as well as Dr. Wesley Doll, Upper Adams School District, and Mark Terry, Knouse Foods Cooperative Inc., who each served one term.

Duane Kanagy of Adams Electric Cooperative Inc. stepped down as board chair, passing the gavel to Darlene A. Brown of Adams County Housing Authority/PA Interfaith Community Programs Inc., who will serve as chair for two years. Kanagy will continue on the board as past chair. Other board officers will be elected in January.

The Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce supports the local business community by promoting diverse economic opportunities through advocacy, networking and information. Nearly 540 local businesses and organizations are members. For more information, visit www.gettysburg-chamber.org.
