Adams County's Culinary Showcase Set for April 12

Gettysburg, Pa. – Tickets are available for Adams County's premier culinary showcase, the 14th Taste of the Town, held from 2-5 p.m. on Sunday, April 12, at the Eisenhower Hotel & Conference Center in Gettysburg.

The event features food tastings from area restaurants, bakeries, businesses and wineries in addition to live music from Jazz Me Band.

"Taste of the Town is a great way to try food from a variety of local businesses in one spot," said Jennifer McCleaf, event organizer. "Join us for a fun afternoon of food, music and competition. Eat your heart out, Adams County."

Businesses participating include: Adams County Winery, Biggerstaff's Catering, Brother Floyd's Righteous Pickles, Carriage House Inn, Eisenhower Hotel, Fidler & Co. Craft Kitchen & Grocery, Garden Grille & Bar, Gettysburg Wine & Fruit Trail, Mamma Ventura's Restaurant, Mister Ed's Elephant Museum & Candy Emporium, Reid's Orchard and Winery, The Broken Cookie, The N.E.W. A-ville Inn, Uncle Moe's Soul Food, Wells Family Baking Co., and more.

The event also includes the Top Local Celebrity Chef Competition, which pairs four local celebrities with chefs from area businesses to prepare three inventive dishes using mystery ingredients from local vendors. The fast-paced competition is based on the Food Network show "Chopped."

Taste of the Town is hosted by the Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce and benefits programming that supports the local business community. Sponsors for the event include Carl E. Frantz Inc., Susquehanna Style, Bacon and Wine Media and Gettysburg Day Spa.

Tickets are $25 and available at Scott & Co. Fine Jewelers in New Oxford, Mister Ed's Elephant Museum and Candy Emporium in Orrtanna and the Gettysburg Adams Chamber of Commerce in Gettysburg, or online at tasteofgettysburg.org.
