

THE CHAMBER

GETTYSBURG & ADAMS COUNTY

Adams County, PA Living 2024-25

We are excited to share plans for the 2024-25 edition of Adams County Living! The guide will continue to showcase all of the great attributes of why we “live, work and play” in Adams County. Information and business listings will be presented in a more user-friendly way and local business leaders will be featured throughout the publication.

Advertising in the 2024-25 Adams County Living is a great way to promote your business to those that live and love Adams County. We are proud to produce this guide locally, using local resources and the opportunity to advertise is limited to chamber members only.

10,000 copies of this high-quality magazine will be distributed throughout the Adams County Community to promote YOU, our chamber members, keeping dollars local and in our community.

Adams County Living is included in the Gettysburg Times to their home subscribers, to all chamber members and at numerous locations throughout Adams County, getting it directly into the hands of potential business and residential customers. Along with the print edition, the guide is also published online, increasing your visibility.

Adams County Living will be published in November 2024.
